

WHAT INFORMATION CAN BE DISCLOSED?

The Privacy Act allows Regional Australia Bank, and other associated parties to disclose personal information about you when related to the primary purpose for which it was collected. In connection with providing credit to you, personal information may include credit information, which includes:

- details to identify you and verify your identity, such as your name, sex, date of birth, current and two (2) previous addresses, your current and last known employer, and your driver licence number;
- the fact that you have applied for credit and the amount or that we are a current credit provider to you, or that you have agreed to be a guarantor
- advice that payments previously notified as unpaid are no longer overdue;
- information about your current or terminated consumer credit accounts and your repayment history
- payments overdue for at least sixty (60) days and for which collection action has started
- in specified circumstances, that in our opinion you have committed a serious credit infringement;
- the fact that credit provided to you by us has been paid or otherwise discharged; and
- other information about credit standing, worthiness, history or capacity that credit providers can disclose under the Privacy Act, including a credit report.

Your sensitive information (e.g., membership of a professional or trade association) may also be disclosed where relevant to the purposes for collecting it.

WHY DO WE OBTAIN INFORMATION?

Before, during or after the provision of our products and services to you, we may obtain your personal information for the purpose of providing products and services to you and managing our business. We collect your personal information to comply with our legal obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 and the Privacy Act 1988.

When providing credit to you, this may include assessing your application for consumer or commercial credit or to be a guarantor for the applicant, assessing your credit worthiness, managing your loan or the arrangements under which your loan is funded or collecting overdue payments.

If you do not provide us with the personal information that we request, we may not be able to consider your application for credit or provide other services.

WHO CAN GIVE OR OBTAIN INFORMATION?

For the purpose of providing products and services to you and managing our business, Regional Australia Bank may give information to:

- external providers to us, such as organisations which we use to verify your identity, providers of payment and card services, mailing houses and research consultants.
- Insurers and re-insurers, where insurance is

- provided in connection with our services to you.

- When you direct an Osko payment or a payment request to a PayID your full legal name and last known address as held by Regional Australia bank will be provided to the receiving financial institution. This information will not be provided to the payment recipient and will be disposed of by the receiving financial institution in accordance with the Privacy Act (1998)(Cth).
- financial planning service providers.

In addition, with providing credit to you, we and the Credit Providers mentioned below may:

- obtain a commercial and consumer credit report containing information about you from a credit reporting body;
- Exchange credit information about you with each other; and
- Exchange credit information about you with any credit reporting body and any other provider of credit to you named in your credit application or a credit report from a credit reporting body.

Credit Providers

Can mean:

- us
- brokers and agents who have referred your business to us; any agent or contractor of ours assisting in processing a loan application, and
- other entities involved that may be involved in a securitisation arrangement which we use to fund your loan in the securitisation of your loan including any loan originator.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT CREDIT REPORTING BODIES

If you apply for or hold any kind of credit with us (including but not limited to Credit Cards, Home or Personal Loan, or Overdraft facility), we may disclose information about you to a credit reporting body. To assist with this we may also collect personal information (including credit-related information) about you from third parties, such as any referees that you provide, your employer, other credit providers and third-party service providers. Under the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009, Regional Australia Bank is required to make inquiries into the financial situation, needs and objectives of each individual when they apply for consumer credit. That includes disclosing that you may be in default under a credit agreement or have committed a serious credit infringement if that is the case. Specifically, we may disclose information to or collect information from Equifax Pty Ltd, whose privacy policy and contact details are at www.equifax.com.au.

You can also ask a credit reporting body not to use or disclose your personal information for a period if you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud, including identity fraud.

WHEN CAN INFORMATION BE OBTAINED, USED OR DISCLOSED?

Before, during or after the provision of our products and services to you, this information can be obtained, used or disclosed by the Credit Providers for the purpose of providing products and services to you and managing our business. When providing credit to you, this may include:

- assessing your application for consumer or commercial credit or to be a guarantor for the applicant, assessing your credit worthiness, managing your loan or the arrangements under which your loan is funded or collecting overdue payments.
- allowing a credit reporting body to create or a credit information about you, and

- if you are in default under a credit agreement, notifying, and exchanging information with, other credit providers and any collection agent of ours.

OVERSEAS DISCLOSURES

Regional Australia Bank may sometimes share your personal information with third parties outside Australia, such as service providers or other third parties who store data or operate outside Australia, including in the United States of America. This includes GreenID, a product used to verify the identity and membership eligibility of individuals in our Membership or Customer onboarding process. GreenID is delivered from service provider, GB Group plc. For further information please refer to the privacy policy of each organisation, located on their respective websites. We may disclose limited information to overseas recipients in connection with card scheme services and other payment processing and fraud prevention services.

If we are required to disclose this information outside Australia, we will do so on the basis that the information will be used only for the purposes set out in this document.

SENSITIVE INFORMATION

Biometric information (such as facial recognition), is collected and used for the purpose of automated biometric identification to verify your identity. Biometric data is obtained through our third-party providers GBG Group plc and InfoTrack Pty Limited, to verify your identity for the purposes of mortgage documentation and processing your application for the product and services we offer.

DISCLOSURE TO INSURERS AND GUARANTORS

Lenders' mortgage and trade insurers

In connection with providing credit to you, a lenders' mortgage insurer or a registered trade insurer may obtain credit information about you from a Credit Provider or from a credit reporting body to assess whether to provide lenders' mortgage insurance to us in relation to an application for consumer credit, or whether to provide trade insurance to us in relation to an application for commercial credit.

Guarantors

In connection with providing credit to you, the Credit Providers may give a guarantor, or a person considering becoming a guarantor, credit information about you to enable the guarantor to decide whether to act as guarantor or to keep informed about your repayment of the credit secured by the guarantee.

PERSONAL INFORMATION ABOUT THIRD PARTIES

You represent that, if at any time you supply us with personal information about another person (for example a referee), you are authorised to do so; and you agree to inform that person who we are, how to contact us, and how to obtain our Privacy Policy, and that we will use and disclose their personal information for the purposes set out in this Notice and that they can gain access to that information by contacting us.

SECURITY, PRIVACY POLICY, AND MARKETING PREFERENCES

Security

We take all reasonable steps to ensure that all your personal information held by us (on our website or otherwise), is protected from misuse, interference and loss, and from unauthorised access, disclosure or modification.

Privacy Policy

Our Privacy Policy contained on our website, www.regionalaustraliabank.com.au provides additional information about how we handle your personal information, including our obligations and use of your personal information for Credit Reporting. It sets out how you can ask for access to personal information we hold about you and seek correction of that information. It also explains how you can complain about a breach of the Privacy Act or the Credit Reporting Privacy Code, and how we will deal with your complaint. We will give you a copy of our Privacy Policy on request.

Comprehensive Credit Reporting

Comprehensive Credit Reporting allows additional information to be exchanged between Credit Providers and Credit Reporting Bodies to provide a clearer picture of your credit history. Please refer to our Comprehensive Credit Reporting Guide contained on our website, www.regionalaustraliabank.com.au for further information.

Marketing preferences

We may provide you with information from time to time about existing and new products and services available to you from Regional Australia Bank or other businesses with which we have a relationship. You can tell us, at any time, that you do not want to receive any of this direct marketing communication. However, this will not apply to any direct marketing on, or accompanying, your regular account statements. We may use information about you to inform you about products and services, including those of other organisations, unless you ask us not to. We may do so even if you are on the Do Not Call Register, unless you ask us not to.
